Father's Day

Father's Day, like Mother's Day, is a reason for common joy and reflection. It is important that the celebrations are personal. We try to do things our father asks, we make an effort to do that little extra, we really ought to do every day.

Thoughts on Father's Day

Our father in heaven, we thank you for our family, and the joy and expectations we have.

Let our common life be characterised by confidence and kinship, and respect for our differences.

Help us to keep our home an open and friendly place where parents and children meet in safety and friends can have a feeling of fellowship.

When hard times meet, let us come more near to you and to each other. Help us to forgive, and to take joy and energy from your hands.

In the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. AMEN

Happy Father's Day
