LITURGY OF THE WORD*FIRST READING Ezekiel 17:22 - 24

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel

The Lord says this:
'From the top of the cedar, from the highest branch I will take a shoot and plant it myself on a very high mountain. I will plant it on the high mountain of Israel. It will sprout branches and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Every kind of bird will live beneath it, every winged creature rest in the shade of its branches. And every tree of the field will learn that I, the Lord, am the one who stunts tall trees and makes the low ones grow, who withers green trees and makes the withered green.

I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will do it.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

P.S. 91: 2-3.13-16

R. It is good to give you thanks, O Lord.

1. It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night. (R)
2. The just will flourish like the palm-tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar. (R)
3. Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. In him, my rock, there is no wrong. (R)

SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 5:6 -10

A reading from the second letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians

We are always full of confidence when we remember that to live in the body means to be exiled from the Lord, going as we do by faith and not by sight - we are full of confidence, I say, and actually want to be exiled from the body and make our home with the Lord. Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing him. For all the truth about us will be brought out in the law court of Christ, and each of us will get what he deserves for the things he did in the body, good or bad.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

The seed is the word of God, Christ the sower; whoever finds this seed will remain for ever. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mark 4:26 - 34

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus said to the crowds, 'This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man throws seed on the land. Night and day, while he sleeps, when he is awake, the seed is sprouting and growing; how, he does not know. Of its own accord the land produces first the shoot, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the crop is ready, he loses no time; he starts to reap because the harvest has come'.

He also said, 'What can we say the kingdom of God is like? What parable can we find for it? It is like a mustard seed which at the time of its sowing in the soil is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet once it is sown it grows into the biggest shrub of them all and puts out big branches so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade.'

Using many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it. He would not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything to his disciples when they were alone.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

All bow for following three lines:

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Pray brothers and sisters, .....

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

O God, who in the offerings presented here provide for the twofold needs of human nature, nourishing us with food and renewing us with your Sacrament, grant, we pray, that the sustenance they provide may not fail us in body or in spirit. Through Christ our Lord.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 13th June 2021

The presence of God in our world is not always visible and his kingdom grows slowly. We are invited to grow in the confidence that God is always with us, even in the face of trials and evils.

"The seed is the word of God, Christ the sower...."

We recall at Mass the loved ones we pray for – we know that they planted seeds within us, the seed of conception, seeds of life and goodness. We may never fully know the good they have passed on just as we may never fully know the good that we pass on to others.

All of us can sit back in silence and give thanks for the good we have done. The little mustard seed that becomes a big tree. The love which has given life to children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, love for the extended family which has looked after nephews and nieces and many others. Our love, the 'social love' Pope Francis talks of, reaches out beyond our immediate circle to the world, especially the needy.

The call to be holy is the call to be helpers; we get the strength to be good people in our prayer also. Pope Francis says that love allows "social, cultural, and economic relationships to flourish, allowing us to construct a 'civilization of love'" (September 9, 2020).

What mark can we leave on the world? Holiness leaves a mark. We remember what people said and did. The marks of the follower of Jesus are marks of true and self-sacrificing love. We want to leave a mark on the world – through prayer and the Mass God leaves his mark on you! He carves us on the palms of his hands; let us carve his name on everything we do in love, for all love comes from God.

May your kingdom come in me each day and be spread in my words and deeds among all I meet.

Donal Neary SJ, Editor, Sacred Heart Messenger.

Jesus' Story

Fr. Liam Hickey

Jesus liked looking at farmers sowing seeds. It reminded Him of all the different people that The Father will welcome to The Feast of Heaven. It will be like a birthday party that never ends. God has made us for love and friendship. When we show love and make friendships we are in God's Love and we help to make a better world.
