St. Thérèse International Day at Knock is an annual, day-long Catholic event held at Knock Shrine in Ireland to celebrate St. Thérèse of Lisieux (the "Little Flower") and her "Little Way of Love". The 2026 event, scheduled for July 12th, features Mass, a relic veneration, workshops, and a rosary procession. It serves as a gathering for devotees to pray for peace and follow the saint's example of childlike trust in God.

Parish Notes

Newmarket-on-Fergus

Parish Office: Will be closed from June 26th to July 23rd. Puff at the Sixmilebridge office will handle mass bookings and newsletter items each week during this time. You can reach Puff by email at office@sixmilebridgeparish.ie or call 087 2204820.

Newmarket-on Fergus Pastoral Office: The sale of the Presbytery at 19 Goodwood will necessitate relocating our pastoral office. Our parish pastoral and finance councils having discussed the matter recommended that our pastoral office relocate to the large room above the sacristy at the rear of the Church of Our Lady of the Rosary. This will place the office at the centre of the village and is also attractive from a cost perspective. We hope to begin work on this project shortly.

Parish Walk: Eurospar to Kilnasoolagh Church. 11th July Depart Newmarket Church car park at 2.00 pm Depart Eurospar 2.15 pm Walk app 2 hours duration. Plan is to date and identify structures and trace historical events. New information for most participants! New knowledge and comments welcome. Maps and photos shared digitally.

Everyone welcome.

Cemetery Masses continue in Newmarket at 7pm on the following dates: 7th July Clonoghan,, 28th July Kilconry, 11th August Kilnasoolagh, 19th August Kilmaleery. There will be no 9.30 am Mass on these Tuesdays.
